INVESTIGATION

On 06-JUL-13 this investigation was initiated by Captain Karyn MURPHY #19 of the 002nd District who alleged that P.O. BA failed to secure her weapon, a Smith & Wesson model 6946 semi-automatic pistol. On 12-JAN-15 the undersigned received this case for investigation. The case file contained the Face Sheet, the Initiation Report, the Original Case Incident Report, Supplementary Report, and a Firearm Registration document (Attachment #'s 1,4,5,6,7).

The undersigned reviewed the documents in the case file as well as the Case Supplementary Report prepared by Detective Beth SVEC # [REDACTED]. Said review revealed that the accused, Police Officer Shana BA, reported that she had left her weapon inside of her vehicle at [REDACTED] while viewing an apartment, and when she ultimately arrived home she discovered that her weapon and her red purse were missing. Said review further revealed that P.O. BA reported that her red purse was returned to her by her neighbor the next day. P.O. BA reported that she subsequently viewed security video from her building which showed that when she returned home from [REDACTED] she threw her green bag over her shoulder upon exiting her vehicle, and her red bag and weapon fell out of the green bag onto the ground (Attachment # 5,6,8).

On 19-FEB-15 the undersigned interviewed P.O. BA in the BIA. P.O. BA confirmed that she initially believed that her weapon had been stolen from her vehicle at [REDACTED]. P.O. BA confirmed that she had been having trouble with her vehicle door locks. P.O. BA further confirmed that she did view surveillance video from the building in which she resides, and that her weapon and red purse fell out of a green bag onto the ground when she threw her green bag over her shoulder upon exiting her vehicle. P.O. BA stated that the surveillance video showed that her neighbor picked up the items that fell out of her green bag, which included her weapon, but he only returned to her the red purse. P.O. BA showed the undersigned cellular phone photographs which, according to P.O. BA depicted her neighbor with her red purse and weapon in his hand. The undersigned did observe an object which appeared to be a red purse and possibly another item which was not distinguishable to the undersigned. P.O. BA related that she was never able to retrieve her weapon. P.O. BA acknowledged that she did fail to secure her duty weapon (Attachment # 9).

The neighbor, [REDACTED], was not interviewed by the undersigned in that he was arrested and released without charging after he had requested an attorney (Attachment # 10).
